

Table of Contents

Preface.....	7
CHAPTER 1: Disentangling Traditions: Culture, Agency and Power Ton Otto &amp; Poul Pedersen .....	11
CHAPTER 2: 'Be Proud to Be Bwile: It is Your Tribe': Ethnicity, Political Jubilees and Traditions of Origins among the Bwile of Zambia Pierre Petit .....	51
CHAPTER 3: Tradition Invented and Inherited in West Africa: A Study of Loma Cultural Identity Christian Kordt Højbjerg .....	85
CHAPTER 4: The Cow, the Cheese and the Anthropologist: The Revival of Traditional Practices in Rural France Denis Chevallier .....	119
CHAPTER 5: Padanian Identity: Ethnogenesis as a Political Strategy Pietro Scarduelli .....	137
CHAPTER 6: Cherishing the Nation's Time and Space: Lithuanian Identity and the Maintenance of Tradition Andreas Roepstorff &amp; Ausra Simoniukstyte .....	157
CHAPTER 7: On the Genealogy of Sasi: Transformations of an Imagined Tradition in Eastern Indonesia Nils Bubandt .....	193

CHAPTER 8: 'Ol i kam long hul bilong Wotñana' (They Come from the Hole of Wotñana): How a Papua New Guinean Artefact Became Traditional Roberta Colombo Dougoud .....	235
CHAPTER 9: 'No Matter That Modern World' – An Aboriginal Approach to a Polychronic Past: A Case Study from Northern Australia Britta Duelke .....	267
CHAPTER 10: The Politics of Indigenous – or Ingenious – Tradition: Some Thoughts on the Australian and New Zealand Situation Erich Kolig .....	293
Postscript Terence Ranger .....	327
About the Authors.....	339
Index.....	344