

Contents

- 7 Introduction
Sanne Hoffmann

Introduction

- 15 Archaeology and Underwater Cultural Resources:
Reviewing a Sea-change in Theory and Practice
Athena Trakadas
- 29 Development-led Maritime Archaeology in Denmark:
Legislation, Management Practices and Research Outcome
Klara Fiedler

Methodology

- 43 Towards a New Understanding of the Early Mesolithic:
The Role of Underwater Archaeology, Strategies, and Problem-Oriented Focus Areas
Peter Moe Astrup
- 51 Marine Remote Sensing Techniques for the Study of Underwater Cultural Heritage Sites:
Case Studies from the Eastern Mediterranean Sea
Maria Geraga & George Papatheodorou
- 71 Tree-ring Science for Maritime Archaeology:
What Timber in Ships Can Tell Us
Aoife Daly

- 87 Methodology Against Budget:
A Compromised Business

George Koutsouflakis

Preservation

- 105 Underwater Perspectives:
Dialogue with Heritage Conservators

Angeliki Zisi

- 117 Out of the Water Perspectives:
Dialogue with Heritage Conservators

Kristiane Strætkevæn

Communication

- 131 Unlocking the Depths:
Engaging Audiences through Artistic Perspectives in Maritime Archaeology

Andreas Kallmeyer Bloch

- 141 The Antikythera Mechanism in Comix:
Communicating Maritime Archaeology through a Multimodal Narrative Medium

Alexandros Tourtas

- 157 The New Strandingsmuseum St George:
Concepts Behind the New Museum in Thorsminde

Anders Jensen

- 169 Contemporary Approaches to Traditional Wooden Boatbuilding:
The Case of the Museum of Aegean Boatbuilding and Maritime Crafts (MNNTA) in Samos,
Greece

Eleni Stefanou